a lifestyle for life

The warm subtropical waters of Macau are the perfect place to escape to island time. Leave the stresses of every day behind and transport yourself into a world of luxurious pampering. With the powerful jets of the Macau Spa, you'll soon forget all about your busy day. Of course, no one should think about work on holiday, that's why there's so little to maintain with a long lasting cabinet that is easy to clean and water effortlessly kept crystal clear with Escape's Ozone system.
